

" Commissions Rules in Commerce, Study Jurisprudence"

Prepared by: Huthayfa Khader Ahmad Ghnimat

Supervised by: Dr. Mohammad Mutlaq Assaf

Abstract

This thesis is a scientific one entitled: "Commissions Rules in Commerce, Study Jurisprudence".

The purpose of this study is to clarify the jurisprudential rules, that regulate the provisions of the Sharia of the commissions, consolidate these rules and prove them with legitimate evidence.

The researcher followed the inductive and deductive approaches(methods), using the descriptive method in addition analysis methodology.

The thesis addressed in its introduction: the importance of the topic, the research methodology, the previous studies, and the study's plan.

In The preface, the researcher mentioned the terms of the thesis, explaining its meanings and objectives touching on the juridical adaptation of the commissions.

In the first chapter, He talked about the special the rules related to the so-called commission contract, in nine matters that dealt with many jurisprudential issues.

The second chapter deals, deals with the special jurisprudential rules of the two branches of the commission contract, the one who takes it and the one who give it (its assignees) with related matters of jurisprudence.

The third Chapter deals with the rules of the commission if it is an effect of another contract, or on a result of another because of a condition.

Finally, the conclusion of the study in which the researcher dealt with the most important findings attached with the technical indexes, arranged according to the methodology of scientific research and its principles in Al-Quds University.