

Human verses in the Holy Quran

Prepared by: Khaled Abdelrahman Mosa Salameh

Supervisor: Dr. Mohamad Al-Deek

Abstract

This research dealt with the subject of man in the verses of the Koran where he followed this phrase and its implications and found that the Holy Quran spoke about man in many verses from its inception to its death and its characteristics and its printing and condition from the beginning of his creation to the day of his mission and between him the consequence of his punishment and punishment and that his fate either to Paradise Either to the fire and the penalty of the sex of work.

The research included three chapters and a conclusion that show the truth of man in the light of the Quran and the statement of the creation of the first man and his descendants and the material of creation and stages of composition and then the stages of the creation of his offspring from the sperm and then from the leech to become a fetus in the abdomen of his mother and then left a child as well as the human qualities mentioned in the Koran and print and bad And his status with the devil and his righteousness and his parents and the manifestations of honoring and preference for all other creatures and use it in the land and carry it to the secretariat of the commission that the heavens, the earth and the mountains to bear and carry human.